

The Life Path Report for

Barbra Streisand

Brooklyn, N.Y.C., NY

Most people are familiar with their Sun sign based on the month and day of birth. The Sun sign answers the question, "What's your sign?" It is the reference point that is employed when we read newspaper and magazine horoscopes. But what about the nine other heavenly bodies that make their influence felt in our lives? These planets were also in a particular sign of the zodiac when you were born. Here is where Astrology really begins to come alive for each individual. This report will take you on a revealing journey as you travel through each interpretation based on your unique month, day, and year of birth. If your birth time was included, then the Rising sign will add yet another dimension to your personal horoscope interpretation. If it is not included because you don't have an accurate time of birth, there is still much useful and insightful personal information that can be gleaned from your report.

This report takes into account the various spiritual and psychological implications, as well as the material plane potentials which are part of your individual life plan. In this case the word potential is used because you have been given a certain amount of free will and the life choices that you make will determine to a large extent the level at which these cosmic energies actually play themselves out. Use this report to find confirmation for what you already feel intuitively and to unlock the door for new life possibilities that you may not have yet considered. This is where the strength and real value of your personal Astrological report is found.

Your birth chart interpretation is based on the positions of the planets at the time of your birth. For the benefit of students of astrology, these positions, along with other technical information, are listed below:

Positions of Planets at Birth:

Chapter 1: The Ascendant

The precise time on the day of your birth determines your particular Ascendant, also known as your Rising Sign. This was the zodiac sign that was rising over the horizon when you were born. In addition to your Sun and Moon Sign, the Rising Sign reveals very important traits that make up a major part of your personality and your individual approach to life. This is usually the impression you like to make before you really get to know someone; it is your outer personality and image.

Aries Rising:

There is a distinct part of your outer personality that expresses itself very much like an Aries. You are dynamic, you enjoy meeting new challenges and you keep things very interesting with your spontaneous "just do it" attitude toward life.

Since this was the sign of the zodiac that was rising over the horizon at your time of birth, the principle of Aries--new beginnings--will be integrated into almost every area of life in some way.

Mars is your chart ruler. To discover even more about what's a priority for you, and also, the first impression you make on others, read everything in the chapter on Mars.

Moon in soft aspect to Asc.:

Your upbringing had a strong effect on your outlook on life and thus your personality.

Moods can shift from high to low because you so easily sense whatever is going on in your environment, whether positive or negative. You're also sensitive, emotional and psychic in a feeling kind of way.

Pluto in soft aspect to Asc.:

An undercurrent of intensity runs through you which you may not even be consciously aware of. Other people sense that you have a powerful will and that you're not opposed to exerting it when what you perceive to be your own survival is at stake.

Your drive and dedication toward the completion of goals is formidable and, as such, quitting is not usually a natural concept for you.

You are a complex person. Even those who are very close to you will only understand a fraction of the real you. At some point, your whole outlook on life will completely transform itself. The process may not be easy, but you'll emerge a completely changed person on some level of your innermost self.

Chapter 2: The Sun

The placement of the Sun in your chart will show you how (the sign) and in which area of life (the house) tremendous potential exists for you. Here is where you want to be successful. The Sun cannot be ignored. We must meet and deal with the area of life that the Sun shines on in our chart in order to find ultimate fulfillment. Everything revolves around the Sun. When you master whatever issues the Sun points to, then other areas of life will proceed in a more balanced and satisfactory manner. The Sun also represents: your own will, major goals, the father, men in your life, children, creativity, and the real inner you.

Sun in Taurus:

Determined, practical and dependable, you take a resourceful and steadfast approach to most matters in life. You like a certain level of consistency in your environment and you often have a natural resistance to change. Other people may view this trait as stubbornness. But Taureans aren't trying to be difficult, they just prefer to stick with the tried and true.

You can be generous or tight-fisted. You are willing to put in the extra effort to accumulate whatever possessions you may have, and you sometimes find it difficult to part with them. You appreciate material comforts and you don't mind indulging yourself, as this Venus-ruled sign has a natural affinity for the good things in life.

You may find that your sometimes too laid back nature invites those who would try to take advantage of you. But others should beware: you may be slow to anger, but when aroused, watch out!

You may also find it hard to break habits and routines because this is a fixed sign that can be quite attached to its comfort zone.

Sun in 1st house:

Personal fulfillment in life is reinforced by projecting your personality. You are self-confident and you basically have a positive outlook on life. Other people are attracted to your vitality, enthusiasm and usually sunny personality. There is a powerful drive to achieve personal goals along with the courage to initiate whatever action is necessary to bring your desires to fruition.

There is a side to you that is active, aggressive and direct. You have strong drives and you can hold your own in competitive situations.

Mercury Conjunct or in hard aspect to Sun:

Sometimes you feel as though the only way to make others hear you is to add a touch of flamboyance and color to your communications. You don't especially like to change your opinions once they are formed.

Pluto Conjunct or in hard aspect to Sun:

Your will can be relentless and you have a keen eye for the imperfections in your fellow man. Remember though, that they may not take kindly to your efforts to overhaul them, even if it is for their own good. Instead, work to make whatever changes are necessary within yourself so that you can lead by example rather than force.

You have charisma and magnetism working for you. You might get into the habit of toning yourself down so that other less courageous souls can "handle" you. Fine, but try not to lose yourself completely in the process.

Chapter 3: The Moon

The Moon in your chart represents the past and points to an area of life (the house) where we function out of instinctive awareness. Often we have a deep emotional need to do the things that the Moon's house placement represents. Whenever insecurities arise and our feelings become involved, we tend to bring the traits (the sign) of our Moon into play. The Moon is like our security blanket. It also represents: the home, females in your life, the mother, nurturing others or being nurtured ourselves, as well as things related to the domestic scene in general.

Moon in Leo:

You need recognition and praise. You are warm hearted and playful with a flair for the dramatic. You exude an air of self-confidence that makes other people want to give you the recognition you desire.

It is often natural for you to assume dominance in social situations and being the center of attention isn't something you shy away from. You take naturally to being in charge and you are comfortable with the responsibility that comes with authoritative positions.

You have a good deal of pride, which in spite of your "I can handle anything" aura, can surprisingly be easily wounded.

When you feel emotionally down, socializing or any form of recreation will pick you up again.

Moon in 5th house:

This indicates many ups and down with respect to dating, love affairs and social involvements, and yet, you have a strong need to pursue these things. You are instinctively romantic and being in love satisfies deep emotional needs.

Your imagination will support any creative endeavors you may choose to undertake and gaining some recognition for your abilities is important to you. For some of you, having your own children or working with other people's children in some capacity can hold great appeal.

Mercury Conjunction or in hard aspect to Moon:

Your emotional states can be in conflict with your rational, logical thinking processes. An example of this would be saying to yourself, "I know I shouldn't feel this way, but I can't help it."

You're restless and you have a lot of nervous energy that you find difficult to release constructively.

Make lists for yourself if you find short-term details slipping your mind.

Chapter 4: Mercury

Mercury is the planet of communication. It tells us about how we think and talk. You can gain insight into your mode of gathering, processing and transmitting information from Mercury's placement in your chart. Mercury also represents: transportation, the five senses, youth, reading, and writing.

Mercury in Taurus:

You learn by experience and steady application. You prefer dealing with hard facts and whatever you learn you do not easily forget.

You express yourself verbally in a manner that is often slow and measured, and you may have a voice that is attractive to others.

Voluntary change doesn't come naturally to you, and sometimes rigid thought patterns and opinions can be difficult to shift.

Mercury in 1st house:

Most likely you are quite a talker. You like talking about yourself. That's O.K. People are attracted to your curious light-hearted demeanor and the way you can easily keep the conversation going. You enjoy gathering and sharing information. You can use the power of words to attract much of what you want out of life.

You strike others as youthful either in appearance or outlook.

Pluto Conjunct or in hard aspect to Mercury:

Try not to resist life experiences that force you to completely change your thinking. At some point in life you are destined to drastically transform your mental approach and the way you use the power of words, especially the spoken word. You have the power to either destroy or ultimately heal yourself and/or others, depending on your choice of words and your thought forms.

Chapter 5: Venus

Venus is the planet of relating to others, and thus is associated with love, attraction and socializing. In a male's chart, Venus can provide clues about traits he finds attractive in females. In a female's chart, it reveals something about how she relates to males. Venus is also the planet of material goodies and sensual delights in all of their various forms. Venus also represents: money, harmonious conditions, pleasurable activities, beauty, and the arts.

Venus in Pisces:

You are romantic, tender-hearted, and compassionate. You have the ability to understand the feelings of others as though you were experiencing them yourself. You have a strong need for love and you will often give of yourself without limits. This placement of Venus in Pisces means you must watch a tendency to become overly dependent upon others, whether they are friends or lovers. You are capable of intuitively seeing below the surface of other people and you look only for the best possibilities that may exist.

You have a great attraction to those who have special needs so that you can put your natural desire to help others to use. This could make you especially drawn to those who may find it difficult to help themselves.

Be careful about developing unrealistic expectations of yourself and other people.

Poetry, art, music and beauty hold a special appeal for you, and you may involve yourself in these pursuits. However this trait manifests, you at least have a deep appreciation for these things.

With respect to money, it may somehow mysteriously "disappear" so to speak, as this sign also tends to dissolve earthly concerns.

Venus in 12th house:

You enjoy your own company and you may have a higher than average desire to retreat from the chaos of the world.

Quite often, relationships are sparked by an instant knowing of the other person based on a subconscious past life recognition.

You may experience at least one affair of the heart that you choose to keep to yourself.

You can be easily hurt and you will sometimes choose to deny your own true feelings, preferring instead to keep them buried where the risk of disappointment or rejection is avoided.

Jupiter Conjunct or in hard aspect to Venus:

You can be fairly extravagant with your finances. The word excessive often describes your attitude toward matters of love and money. You are attracted to the finer things in life, and you don't mind indulging yourself.

Chapter 6: Mars

Mars is our planet of action, energy output, motivation, and instinctive biological drives. It shows how and in which area of life you are willing to put forth a lot of effort. Mars' energy is quick, impulsive, and survival oriented. In a male's chart, Mars reveals something about how he relates to females. In a female's chart, Mars can provide clues about the traits she finds attractive in males. Mars also represents: competitive situations, conflicts, accidents, and sexual energies.

Mars in Gemini:

Mars in Gemini makes you resourceful, adventuresome, and capable of quick action when necessary. Your coordination is generally fairly well developed. Mars is an active planet in the "hard to pin down" sign of Gemini, resulting in episodes of restlessness and impatience which can become challenges to overcome. The biggest drawback here would be a tendency to have too many irons in the fire and then losing interest in completing any of your projects.

Here is energy and action combined with communication skills. This is a great placement for journalists and reporters.

Mars in 3rd house:

Once in a while you may find that it is a good idea to think first and speak later, as the chances are greater with Mars here that others may not understand your direct approach.

Use caution when driving. Slow pokes and "idiots" on the road can make you crazy and your judgment may be impaired when you're fuming.

You are gifted with an abundance of mental energy and this can manifest as vigorous intellectual pursuits or exuberant verbal expression. You may even enjoy the challenge of a debate or some good-humored verbal sparring as a release valve for all that mental drive.

Neptune Conjunct or in hard aspect to Mars:

You may find it difficult to cope with competitive situations and your determination to go after what you really want can be inconsistent. You must cultivate a stronger sense of being deserving and never listen to voices of discouragement, whether they emanate from within you or from without.

Stronger personalities might be tempted to try to cross your boundaries. Associate with those who are more evolved spiritually.

Chapter 7: Jupiter

Jupiter is the planet of expansion and taking things beyond normal limits. It shows us where the universe allows us to indulge ourselves, and often we find that wherever it is in the chart is where things work out in our favor eventually. Some call this luck. Jupiter also represents: faith, ideas about God, abstract thinking, high ideals, and abundance.

Jupiter in Gemini:

Benefits come through intellectual expansion, expressing yourself and making your ideas known. Writing and journalism can also become satisfactory avenues of expression for you. Your mind is exceptionally curious and you are able to converse with almost anyone about anything. There often doesn't seem to be enough time in the day to pursue all of your varied interests.

Staying in one place long enough to finish a particular project requires conscious self discipline because your mind tends to become bored easily and it's always urging you to move on to something new.

You have many ideas and you're more than willing to share them with others as long as they're willing to listen to you.

Jupiter in 3rd house:

You love to talk and, if you're lucky, other people enjoy hearing the stories you have to tell. You might even exaggerate a bit just to make it more interesting.

Your mental capacities are expansive and you can easily teach what you know.

Chapter 8: Saturn

Saturn is our planet of restriction and discipline. It shows us where we may feel inadequate in some way, and thus we take this area of life very seriously because we want to perfect ourselves. Saturn also represents: life lessons to be learned, trials and tests, a strong sense of duty, and bringing ideas into material form.

Saturn in Taurus:

You will hardly ever act out of impulsive desire, instead preferring to weigh your actions with caution and patience. You may be emotionally prudent, but your will is powerful.

You will no doubt learn many lessons about the use of resources and also the sharing of those resources. You may be the long-suffering type who is into self-imposed denial of material goods, or you may actually go to the other extreme of overindulgence in order to boost yourself during periods of sagging self worth. You have the ability to develop a deeper understanding than most people of what the word "values" really means.

Reminder: money problems and romantic losses can begin to evaporate when you decide to truly appreciate the resources of the earth, share what you do have, and open your heart to deep emotional sharing. Your throat, neck and voice might represent vulnerable areas physically.

Saturn in 2nd house:

Feelings of inadequacy about what you have materially can be the spur that encourages you to work hard for what you want. Check out your innermost thoughts about what you truly feel you deserve. Try replacing "I can't" with "I can!" Saturn is a planet that promises eventual success if you hang in there.

Financial fruits are reaped by nurturing the qualities of caution, thrift and perseverance. This a lifetime to pay attention to handling your own finances and making some of your own money. Get rich quick schemes can turn out to be bummers.

Uranus Conjunct or in hard aspect to Saturn:

From time to time you will experience shakeups in your attitude toward established modes of thinking and traditions that support the status quo. There is a certain amount of contentment with long held traditions. At the same time there is often an inner compulsion to break free and shake things up a bit! As soon as you begin to feel comfortable with your station in life or your achievements, unforeseen circumstances often arise that prod you into activity and forward movement again.

You take yourself too seriously at times and you avoid putting yourself into subordinate positions at work or in any other group situation. If you can sit back and look at life with a different perspective, you will be able to see the value of the humorous side of life especially as it applies to you.

Lighten up on your fellow man while you're at it. Those who share your capacity for progressive thinking and inventive approaches may be hard to come by, so you may as well make up your mind to go with the flow. Your visions will manifest more efficiently with the support of others.

Neptune in soft aspect to Saturn:

You can bring that which is without form into concrete existence. For example, you have an ability to take whatever you imagine and manifest it through art, music, or theater. You can even express profound feelings through poetry and writing.

This is a lifetime in which part of your mission is to bring a bit of the ethereal realm into physical earth plane existence.

You seem to always have one foot outside of "reality" and the other planted firmly on solid ground. Mystical concepts must serve a constructive purpose and functioning on blind faith is not a credible concept for you.

Your sense of responsibility is well developed, perhaps too much so. It may not be easy, but try to avoid acting on motivations that play off guilt and fear, such as allowing others to take advantage of your time and resources. Cultivate conviction and eradicate irrational doubts or fears.

Heaven on earth is more than simply a trite phrase for you. It is your innermost vision.

Chapter 9: Uranus

Uranus is a planet of unexpected change and unpredictable events. It tells us something about where we have unusual ideas and how we want to express our own unique individuality. Uranus also represents: rebelliousness, sudden awakenings, invention, progress, genius, anything "New Age," and humanitarian efforts.

Uranus in Taurus:

Uranus was in the sign of Taurus for approximately seven years. This means that you are part of a large group of people who will share many of the same fundamental characteristics such as the ability to be highly resourceful and determined. There is an emphasis on material possessions and the security these things provide. Freedom through financial attainment is your motto.

When you read your individual house placement for Uranus, you will be able to see where these traits will express themselves on a more personal basis.

Uranus in 2nd house:

You can be a genius when it comes to making money. You may have to be, as this placement of Uranus brings sudden and unexpected changes in your money supply.

During the steady periods you would do especially well to squirrel something away for emergencies. You can earn money by doing something that breaks with traditional methods.

Neptune in soft aspect to Uranus:

Idealistic and quite the visionary, you have much to offer in the way of hope and grand possibilities for your generation. You may have extraordinary abilities relating to mystical subjects. Here is where imagination and intuition combine, and the visualization of a utopian society based on a desire to further the lot of humankind can spur you on to tremendous achievements. You have incarnated along with a group of individuals who will join together with others of like mind to focus your unique talents on many global issues and pressing concerns.

Chapter 10: Neptune

Neptune is a planet that dissolves hard and fast boundaries. It is where we don't always see things as they really are, mostly because we would rather view the world through rose-colored glasses.

With Neptune, anything becomes a possibility, especially that which we can imagine. Neptune also represents: tuning into other planes of reality, the spiritual dimensions, cosmic consciousness, movies, music, and inspired creativity.

Neptune in Virgo:

Because Neptune stays in the same sign about fourteen years, there are many other people who will experience the same things that this placement brings to varying degrees. Some of these include: an "I'll believe it when I see it" attitude, especially directed toward mystical occurrences, a desire to heal yourself psychologically and the desire to serve humanity by helping people to elevate themselves in practical ways.

Your house position will show where Neptune affects your life on an individual basis.

Neptune in 6th house:

You'll have to actively cultivate your ability to deal with details and other routine daily activities. You can get more accomplished by learning how to light your own fire when it comes to getting started on work projects. For you, taking the first step is half the battle won; after that you're a fine worker.

You'll have to develop a "thicker skin" in order to survive some of the situations you might encounter in the workplace. Polish and perfect your skills. It's hard for others to bowl over solid confidence.

Your health is boosted by learning all about natural remedies, such as herbs, chiropractic care, etc. Your mental state and the thoughts you think affect your well-being. Use your imagination to create positive visualizations.

Neptune is Retrograde

Ever heard the term "suffer in silence?" Does it apply to you? Ask yourself why you find it so difficult to share your real pain with others. Someone made you feel guilty a long time ago and now a part of you lives as though you're trying to make up for whatever the original so-called transgression was. You want to heal the whole world. Start with forgiving yourself in no uncertain terms. Unload other people's shabby misconceptions which have been foisted upon you and find the tranquility you deserve.

Chapter 11: Pluto

Pluto is a planet that brings with it transformation. Something about the area of life that it points to will undergo a complete change. Significant lifestyle changes can happen whenever Pluto is involved. Deep, complex issues will be brought to light eventually. It is where conditions can swing from one extreme to the other. It's all or nothing.

Pluto also represents: psychological probing, keeping secrets or bringing them to light, power and control issues, obsessions, healing and purification.

Pluto in Leo:

Pluto is the slowest moving planet, and thus is recognized as exerting a generational influence as it moves through each zodiac sign.

With Pluto in Leo you're part of the generation that can experience radical changes in leisure time activities and its own children. On a personal level, those with Pluto in Leo tend to be proud, into hero worship and self centered in the sense of making their personal desires all important.

Read the house placement for Pluto in your chart. It shows you an area of life where this planet has a more personal influence.

Pluto in 5th house:

When it comes to love, it's all or nothing as far as you're concerned. You either throw your whole being into it, or choose to remain completely detached.

It is important to express your will, but watch the temptation to use manipulation and control to get your way. It can backfire.

At some point in life, finding a creative outlet will have a healing effect on you. Do it for the pure enjoyment of it. Your attitude toward play and creativity can undergo a drastic change.

Chapter 12: Elements, the North Node, and the Midheaven

In this section of the report we interpret the following astrological influences: the Moon's North Node, the MC (the 10th house cusp or Midheaven) and also a preponderance of an astrological element. A "preponderance" occurs when 4 or more planets or the Ascendant is in that element: fire, earth, air, or water. Many people do not have a heavy emphasis of a particular element so not everyone will have an interpretation of an element emphasis.

If the individual chart has aspects to the MC, these will reveal certain career options and potentials for your consideration.

The North Node is an important pointer along the pathway of life. You'll have to be willing to stretch yourself and move away from familiar patterns in order to meet the challenge of the North Node. Great rewards will be reaped in the form of personal growth and reaching your potential goals. The North Node sign will suggest an approach to the area of life represented by its house position.

North Node in Virgo:

Incorporating the following traits into your life will make it easier in the long run to attain goals.

The best way to describe this principle is to imagine a bird having to leave its nest for the first time. It is extremely challenging, but it's the only way to really learn to fly.

Learn that it's O.K. to say no. This is a lifetime to learn all about separating what is useful from what is not. You can be an expert at logical analysis. Tie up loose ends and get yourself organized.

Worry and anxiety can be held at bay by making yourself useful. Active participation in life, especially helping other people, will keep your mind at ease and your energy high. Pay attention to health messages from your body.

Discover that dealing with mundane responsibilities and disagreeable chores, instead of putting them off, can actually create its own kind of freedom.

North Node in 6th house:

The universe is encouraging you to play up the aforementioned traits in these areas of life.

Consider the following: work for a living and learn how to relate to co-workers or employees. If you don't have to work, then perhaps volunteering to help others, while at the same time learning to set some limits on your time and energy.

Listen to the messages from your body and actively create your own state of health. Explore alternative health therapies.

MC in soft aspect to Sun:

The ability to lead others has a positive bearing on your career. Success comes easier for you than most and as a result, you may have to prod yourself into action occasionally. Remember the tortoise that beat the hare?

A career that provides an outlet for creative self-expression, leadership abilities and personal recognition is important to consider. Hint: read the section on your Sun Sign and ask yourself how those traits might best be expressed when choosing a career.

MC in soft aspect to Mercury:

The boss wants to hear what you have to say. You're lucky because you can get those in positions of authority to listen to your ideas. Communication skills will support your career ambitions.

Variety is the key to your career, either a variety of careers, or perhaps a medley of duties to perform within a single career. Reporter, writer, accountant, educator, researcher, scientist, salesperson. Wherever the transmission of information is necessary, therein lies a career possibility for you.

Four or more Earth Signs

Stable and grounded, you will learn all about how to bring what you dream about into practical reality. Manifestation is the key here. Develop a habit of finishing whatever you start. Enjoy and appreciate the bounty that the earth offers.

You like feeling useful and you can develop a real talent for solid accomplishment in life. People admire your willingness to take responsibility for getting things done.

Chapter 13: House Rulerships

This chapter deals with an Astrological technique known as House Rulers. The "houses" of the horoscope deal primarily with your earth plane experiences. As such, the tone of these interpretations may appear to be more "predictive" in nature. Not all statements will apply absolutely to your experience. Here we are exploring some of the various options that may exist in your chart based on the links between these twelve major areas of life, the Houses of the Horoscope.

Ruler of 1st house in 3rd:

You're curious about life and learning is important to you. You want to get your ideas noticed and communication is important to you.

There is a strong need to feel well integrated into your immediate community and you may make many short local trips.

You tend to have a lot of interest in your siblings if you have them and you identify strongly with close relatives in general.

Ruler of 2nd house in 12th:

You place a high value on idealistic concepts such as forgiveness and helping others altruistically. Or perhaps you have a talent for receiving and perceiving spiritual guidance, healing and other related metaphysical gifts.

There is an indication that some of your money may go into large public institutions and charities, or you may earn money through them somehow.

If you ever experience periods where your feelings of self worth are below par and are interfering with a solid sense of security, then you may benefit from some professional analysis sessions. Likewise, meditation can be a self help technique that will stimulate positive self awareness.

Ruler of 3rd house in 1st:

You enjoy sharing whatever is going on in your life with others and one of the primary ways that you relate to people is by using your conversational skills to the utmost.

Childhood experiences, especially those that happened during your early school years, could have significantly shaped your outlook on life. Other important figures may have included close relatives, particularly a brother or sister.

Ruler of 4th house in 5th:

Your upbringing influenced your attitude towards children. It also influenced your ability to be creative and to follow your heart's desires.

Your mother may have enjoyed being the center of attention in some capacity or perhaps she was a very creative person.

Real estate and property matters may be augmented by investment or other forms of speculation.

Your home could be a place of much social activity.

Ruler of 5th house in 5th:

You are in love with love and you are usually very socially oriented.

You may find yourself "performing" in some capacity and you enjoy giving birth to new and creative projects. Paying close attention to your heart's desire and keeping in touch with your own inner child will promote general happiness and life satisfaction.

Your children (most likely the first child) may be creative or they may simply enjoy being the center of attention.

Ruler of 6th house in 1st:

The work you do affects your outlook on life and your vitality in general. You could be highly sensitive to weather changes so that they actually influence your mood and your motivation.

You tend to worry too much about the impression you make on others.

Ruler of 7th house in 12th:

With regards to marriage and other close partnerships, you could find yourself playing a supportive role from behind-the-scenes in some way. Your partner may have past life issues to finish up with you this time around.

At some point, you may involve yourself in a partnership that has a hidden quality about it, or you could become involved with someone who is not free in the usual sense.

Ruler of 8th house in 5th:

Your dreams can manifest as creative abilities.

A major transformation towards your approach to life can be stimulated by your children or children in general.

You have intense feelings about love and you could have a deeply intimate bonding experience with a lover.

Ruler of 9th house in 3rd:

Your spiritual awareness had an influence on you even as a child. Your beliefs or your philosophies on life could be something you have a strong desire to share with others.

You want to expand your mind and any education that goes beyond high school may depend on what you teach yourself. You can teach what you know either verbally or in writing.

Ruler of 10th house in 2nd:

Your career greatly contributes to your feelings of self worth and you want to be responsible for your own income.

Your chosen profession (not the work you do to survive) will be financially lucrative. If you're making less than you'd like, become a specialist at something that appeals to you.

Being your own boss gives you a stronger sense of personal liberty.

Ruler of 11th house in 2nd:

Friends, acquaintances, and even large groups of people, especially those within a particular organization, contribute either to your feelings of self worth, or perhaps your actual income.

Circumstances beyond your control can have a strong bearing on your financial picture.

Your interest in New Age practices can become a source of income for you.

Ruler of 12th house in 2nd:

Past life scenarios can bring up issues to work out regarding finances or what you have in general. This can stem from past life attitudes about money or perhaps even your feelings of self worth.

You could experience a time of confusion and doubt about your own self worth.

Too much emphasis on the importance of material possessions can work against you. Experience the contentment that the simple pleasures of life can offer.
